Dear Harold,

I am in the process of having copies made of the Youngblood picture. But you know how the copying goes. May take awhile. However, as soon as I get them back, I'll send you a couple of them. What you could do is, if you don't get them by the time you go to New Orleans, drop me a line & give me your temporary address down there, & I'll send them there. This is, of course, up to you.

By the way, how long will you be in New Orleans? Does Jim have any interest in the Youngblood affair? Do me a favor & tell him I said, "Hello"! Does he know me in any way ???

I would very much like to do some work in the Archives, if I can ever find the time! I wish I was a little closer to D.C. than I am and. I have the car down here & it's about a 3 to 3½ hour drive up. I'll try & work something out in the near future.

Speaking of the Archives, there is a letter being forwarded to me from them in answer to one I sent them concerning anything they have on "Youngblood." Will let you know if anything turns up. Also wrote to the "Los Angles Times". Seems as though "Jack" Youngblood was arrested there in '61.

Couple days ago, I tried to call Father Walter Macham. He had returned from Europe. The guy who answered (the Reverends father), told me he doesn't live there, although the Dallas directory lists the address as the one I called; 723 N. Oak Cliff Blvd. Some woman came on & told me that the Reverend was traveling & they wouldn't know his address for a long time. (She emphasized 'long'.) Think they are holding back?? Does he know how important his knowledge is & that is why he is conveniently unavailable? Hard to understand, but I'll keep trying to get him if you want me to. Let me know.

Well, guess I'll close here. I hope I can send you these pictures before you leave. Drop me a line from New Orleans if you have time. Take care & I'll see you later.

Barry
